

ANNEX TO THE CALL FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST FOR SECONDED NATIONAL EXPERTS (SNE)

EXPERT INVESTIGATOR OF FINANCIAL CRIMES EPPO/2025/SNE/002

1. General conditions for SNEs

SNEs are seconded to the EPPO according to the College Decision No 102/2021 of 20 October 2021 laying down rules on the secondment to the European Public Prosecutor's Office ('EPPO') of National Experts.

SNEs should allow the EPPO to benefit from the high level of their professional knowledge and experience.

The secondment is authorised by the Appointing Authority (Administrative Director) of the EPPO and effected by an exchange of letters between the EPPO and the competent authorities of the Member State concerned. The place of origin and the place of secondment, its initial duration, the duties and responsibilities in line with the call for applications, and the allowances and expenses regime must be indicated in the exchange of letters.

The SNE's employer shall undertake to continue to pay his/her salary, to maintain his/her administrative status throughout the period of the secondment and to maintain the level of the remuneration that SNE was receiving at the time of his/her secondment. The SNE's employer shall also continue to be responsible for all his/her social rights, particularly social security and pension rights. The SNE's employer will assume the responsibility for expenses incurred abroad in case of sickness or accident.

SNEs shall assist the Permanent Chambers and the European Prosecutors. They may not perform middle or senior management duties. Unless a special mandate has been granted by the supervisor of the SNE, the SNE may not undertake commitments on behalf of the EPPO.

The SNE shall carry out the duties and conduct his/her tasks solely within the interests of the EPPO. He/she shall neither seek nor take instructions from any government, authority, organisation nor person outside the EPPO. He/she shall carry out the duties assigned objectively, impartially and in keeping with his/her duties of loyalty to the EU.

The initial period of the secondment may not be less than six months or exceed two years and may be renewed successively up to a total period not exceeding four years. Exceptionally, at the request of the supervisor and where the interests of the EPPO so warrant, the Appointing Authority may authorise one or more extensions of six months of the secondment for a maximum of two additional years at the end of the four-year period. Any extension of the period of secondment shall be the subject of a new exchange of letters between the EPPO and the competent authorities of the Member State concerned.

Unless otherwise provided in the exchange of letters between the EPPO and the competent authorities of the Member State concerned, the SNE shall be entitled, throughout the period of the secondment, to a daily subsistence allowance and a monthly subsistence allowance, applicable to the place of secondment. The SNE shall inform the Human Resources Unit of the EPPO of any allowances similar to the subsistence allowances paid by the EPPO received by the SNE and paid from other sources.

Unless otherwise provided in the exchange of letters, the SNE whose place of origin is more than 150 km from the place of the secondment, shall be entitled to reimbursement of the cost of the travel between these two places both at the beginning and end of his/her secondment for himself/herself and for his/her spouse and dependent children, provided that they live with the SNE during the time of secondment.

Once the applications have been registered, the senders will receive an acknowledgement message by e-mail confirming the receipt of the application.

Please note that if at any stage of the selection procedure it is established that any of the requested information provided by an applicant is false, the applicant in question will be disqualified.

In case of any queries about the selection process, please contact:
EU-EPPO-SNE@ec.europa.eu.

3. Selection procedure

The selection procedure includes the following steps:

- The Selection Board designated by the Appointing Authority (Administrative Director of the EPPO) is set up for the selection procedure;
- After registration, each application is checked to verify whether the applicant meets the eligibility criteria;
- All candidates who are found eligible are invited for an interview;
- The interview (remotely or face-to-face) is conducted in English. Some interview questions may be held in the language indicated by the applicant on the application form as the first EU language;
- During the interview, the Selection Board examines the profiles of the applicants and makes a qualitative evaluation of whether they do not meet/meet/exceed the selection criteria;
- After the interviews, the Selection Board draws up a non-ranked list of the suitable candidates to be included on a reserve list (talent pool) for the position and proposes it to the Appointing Authority;
- The Appointing Authority selects from the reserve list an applicant to whom to offer the secondment. The secondment is implemented by an exchange of letters between the Administrative Director of the EPPO and the competent authorities of the Member State;

- An applicant included on the reserve list may also be selected for secondment to a similar position depending on the needs of the EPPO and budgetary situation as long as the reserve list is valid;
- The reserve list established for this selection procedure shall be valid until 31/12/2026 (the validity period may be extended);
- Each applicant invited for an interview will be informed whether or not he/she has been placed on the reserve list. Applicants should note that inclusion on a reserve list does not guarantee a secondment by the EPPO.

The work and deliberations of the Selection Board are strictly confidential and any contact with its members is strictly forbidden.

Under no circumstances should candidates contact the Selection Board, directly or indirectly, concerning this selection or promote their candidature directly or indirectly through any other means outside the terms of this application and selection processes. The Appointing Authority reserves the right to disqualify any candidate who disregards this instruction.

The SNE will be asked to declare any potential conflict between his/her family circumstances, in particular the professional activities of close family members or any of his/her own important financial interests or those of close family members, and the proposed duties while on secondment.

All applications are treated fairly. Applicants will be assessed on the basis of their qualifications and in strict compliance with the principle of equal opportunities in order to have the best possible match between the profile of the candidate and the requirements of the job.

4. Equal opportunities

The EPPO applies a policy of equal opportunities and accepts applications without discrimination on any grounds such as sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, age or sexual orientation.
